Finishing Strong

It's that time of year that our thoughts naturally turn to the promise of summer fun, sunshine, swimming, baseball, bike riding, popsicles, staying up later, and no homework! During this transition, it's easy to get overly excited by study trips and special projects and forget that we still need to remain focused. Behavioral expectations are the same today as they were in August. Please encourage your child to finish the year strong and demonstrate Personal Responsibility, Respect, Integrity, Determination, and Enthusiasm....everyday....all day long. Special activities are so much more fun when everyone listens and follows expectations.
