Winter Weather Clothing

Please dress your child for being outside in cold weather. We try to get outside for recess daily unless the wind chill falls below 20 degrees F or the playground is not safe. We have extra hats and gloves for those who need them. If a warm coat is needed, please call the office.

DARE

Triton 5th graders are pleased to welcome Corporal Bridget Hite and Asst. Chief of Police Matt Emehiser as they present the DARE program at Triton. The 10-week program will take place every Thursday afternoon beginning January 18.

Apple of my Eye Father/Daughter Dance

Saturday, February 3rd from 7:00-9:00 p.m. is the 16th annual Father/Daughter Dance at the Matchette Center. This is limited seating-only the first 100 girls will be able to attend. Forms were sent home with all girls 3 years old through grade 6 on Friday, January 12.

Carnation Sales

PTO will once again sell individual carnations to give to someone special on Valentine's Day. Look for order forms coming home next week!

Fun Activities for Cold Winter Days

Does the chilly winter weather make you miss summer more with each passing day? Are you busy practicing your hibernation skills because you just don't know what else to do to pass the time? If you've answered yes to either of these questions, here are some fun and low-cost ideas and activities you can do by yourself or with loved ones.

Play Games-Playing a board game is a fun pastime that can create lasting memories with your friends and family.

Watch a Movie-Make a movie night an experience by getting creative and designing your own movie tickets. Have assigned seats ready with goody boxes filled with popcorn, candy and drinks.

Build a Pillow Fort-Turn your fort into a relaxing escape with complimentary Netflix and Hot Chocolate.

Get Active, Bake Something, Make some Hot Chocolate and Tell Stories.

No matter what you choose to do this winter, remember that keeping an open heart and spreading kindness to those around you is the best thing you can do to pass the time.

A la Carte

Starting on Monday, January 15th, 3rd Graders may purchase A la Carte food items at lunch. Students must have extra money in their account and may not purchase a la carte until they are finished with their meal. If you have questions, please call the office.
