CONGRATULATIONS, 5TH GRADE

Many thanks to Corporal Bridget Hite and Assistant Chief of Police Matt Emehiser for bringing the DARE program to our fifth grade students again this year. They celebrated with a graduation ceremony on Thursday afternoon in the Triton Performing Arts Center followed by cake (furnished by the Bourbon Police Department) in the elementary cafeteria. The top three essay winners presented their essays in front of family and peers: Delanie Rauch, Gavin Bontrager, and Addison Yarbrough. Each received a Darren stuffed lion which is the Dare Mascot standing for courage. The overall essay winner, Gavin Bontrager, will receive $100. All students will attend a South Bend Cubs game on May 22nd. We hope the lessons they learned in DARE will stick with them for a lifetime.
